

PRESS RELEASE

New Far East service at EUROGATE Container Terminal Hamburg

Hamburg, 15 May 2018 +++ The MV "Hyundai Forward" moored at the EUROGATE Container Terminal Hamburg for the first time on Saturday, 12 May. The container ship is travelling as part of the re-aligned Asia Europe Express (AEX) service operated by the South Korean shipping company Hyundai Merchant Marine.

The 4,700 TEUs carrier is one of ten vessels that will regularly connect Hamburg with Asia. In addition to Hamburg, the service also operates in Southampton and Rotterdam in Europe. In the Far East, the vessels, each of which measure almost 300 metres in length, will call to Busan, Shanghai, Ningbo, Kaohsiung, Yantian, Singapore, Hong Kong and Colombo. The transit time from Busan to Hamburg totals 32 days.

About EUROGATE:

EUROGATE is the leading, shipping line independent container terminal operator Group in Europe. Jointly with the Italian terminal operator Contship Italia, the company operates a network of thirteen container terminals at twelve locations from the North Sea coast to the Mediterranean area. Commencing 29 January 2017, the EUROGATE Container Terminal Limassol, Cyprus, will be added as the 14th terminal of the network. In addition to container handling services at seaports, EUROGATE offers intermodal transport and cargomodal services. EUROGATE was founded in 1999, and handled 14.4 million TEUs Europe-wide in 2017.
